

Windy weather softens ROC market

- The scheduled e-ROC monthly auction took place today Friday 24th January 2014 and 74,882 ROCs were sold. This is exactly 10,000 up on last month and more than double the volume auctioned in January 2013.
- The average price was £42.57 a decrease of 44p from last month.
- The decrease in market prices appears to be mainly due to the large supply of ROCs from wind generators with forecasters predicting an additional two million ROCs because of the recent windy conditions.
- The dates of the next e-ROC monthly auctions are -
 - Wednesday 26th February 2014
 - Monday 31st March 2014
 - Friday 25th April 2014
 - Friday 23rd May 2014
 - Monday 30th June 2014
