

Next RTFC Auction – Wednesday 19th January

No need to shop around for RTFCs

NFPAS has been running on-line auctions since 2001 and the RTFC auction service provides the opportunity to tap into a combined stock of RTFO certificates, eliminating the need to shop around.

The next user-friendly and convenient RTFC auction will take place on Wednesday 19th January.

Both sellers and buyers are very positive about the RTFO Auctions and see them as an ideal platform for which to buy and sell certificates.

Buyers can preserve their anonymity and are not charged any fees, whilst sellers have access to the majority of obligated suppliers in a hassle free, no risk environment.
